Interschool cooperation suffered that more stringent rules will be frosh on probation, it seems likely another blow at the hands of one nut juto effect for next year's inof our colleagues on the staff of coming freshmen. These may inthe "Racquette." He reported that clude 8:00 hours which were abolhe neglected writing of hockey in ished only recently. It is interhis column because he "went to a esting to note that Potsdam's couple of games early in the sea- | rules are among the easiest in the son and was surrounded by about country for girl's colleges . . . 100 screaming children." Goop-! Along that line, the Potsdam seneration and good feeling is steadily | iors have been given overnights becoming more widespread on the for their senior ball . . . WNTC's campuses. Writing of that type new board under Charles Winter's will only serve to undermine the direction for the coming year took progress and put us back to where over this week. There's a possibilwe were about a year ago . . . itv that by next year at this time With 45 percent of the S.U.T.C.P., WNTC will be broadcasting from (See Brooks, page 5)

WNTC

(Continued from page 1) C.C.T.-S.L.U. game at Canton will be broadcast direct from Appleton Arena, Tuesday night, March 2. Ron Willman has announced that a new program schedule will go into effect March 1. All those interested in working on the station can do so by contacting Gerry Brill.

The incoming board expressed appreciation for the fine work done by the retiring members. The retiring members will remain as advisory personnel until station operations cease late in May
